Purpose and values

The Baring Foundation was set up in 1969. It is a registered charity and company limited by guarantee governed by its memorandum and articles of association. It may use its capital and income to make grants "to such charities or for such charitable purposes" as trustees determine. The Foundation derives its income from a diversified investment portfolio.

The following purpose and values statement was adopted by trustees in February 2013:

Our purpose is to improve the quality of life of people experiencing disadvantage and discrimination. We aim to achieve this through making grants to voluntary and other civil society organisations and by adding value including through promoting knowledge and influencing others.

We:

- believe in the fundamental value of an independent and effective civil society both nationally and internationally. Civil society identifies new needs and ways to meet these. It engages citizens, giving them voice in a unique way, holding the powerful to account;
- use our funds to strengthen voluntary sector organisations, responding flexibly, creatively and pragmatically to their needs and with a determination to achieve value for money;
- help to create enduring change both in the lives of those served by the work we are funding and by building the capacity of organisations to become more sustainable and resilient;
- put a high value on learning from organisations and their beneficiaries. We seek to add value to our grants by encouraging the communication of knowledge through a variety of means, including influencing others;
- build positive, purposeful relationships with grant recipients, as well as with other grant makers;
- treat grant-seekers and recipients with courtesy and respect; being as accessible as possible within clear programme guidelines and maintaining consistently high standards of administrative efficiency.

Structure, governance and management

The trustees of the charity are members of the Council of Management of the Foundation and are directors under the Companies Act 2006. The current members appoint new trustees. One third of the trustees retire from office at each AGM but are eligible for re-election, currently subject to a maximum term of 12 years.

At the AGM in September 2017, Lucy de Groot, Andrew Hind, Shauneen Lambe, Francois Matarraso and Marie Staunton retired by rotation and were re-elected as Members of the Council of Management.

Trustees invite suitably qualified and experienced people to consider nomination as a trustee. A trustees' skills audit is undertaken from time to time to identify ways in which the Council could be strengthened. On appointment trustees are given an induction pack and are offered one or more briefing meetings with the Director and/or Chair.

Trustees are responsible for all decisions on the Foundation's policy and grants. In 2017, in addition to the Audit and Investment Committees, there were four committees of the Council, one for the Arts programme, one for the International Development programme, one for the Strengthening the Voluntary Sector programme and a Nominations Committee.

All trustees give their time voluntarily and receive no benefits from the charity. Any expenses reclaimed from the charity are set out in note 5 to the accounts.

The six members of staff of the Foundation continue to occupy offices provided pro bono by ING Bank.

Objectives and activities

In all a total of 47 new grants were agreed during the year to the value of £3,123,466 (see note 7). These included: 18 Arts and Older People programme grants totalling £609,100; seven international development grants totalling £1,159,672 and 19 STVS programme grants totalling £1,103,604. Two grants totalling £250,000 were made, with joint funds from seven other funders, for the continuing costs of the Inquiry into the Future of Civil Society (see note 15). Of the grants agreed during 2017, £1,555,941 had been paid by the end of the year; a further £754,444 was paid as a result of grant decisions made in previous years.

Our approach to grant making continues to evolve. It is bespoke to each grant programme and the opportunities which we see as available in each field. The STVS programme grants were made through an open call which we felt appropriate at an early stage in the development of the programme. In contrast the Arts programme is in its eighth year and, therefore, in a better position to enter into partnerships with other funders, often to create pooled open access funds. These are then accompanied by a small number of grants made by invitation where we feel there is a strategic merit. The International Development programme approach is different again. Our wish is to fund African civil society organisations directly and grant makers in Africa, who are specialists in the field of our interests. In addition some grants are made to UK bodies where these are best placed to advocate for resources for African civil society. In general much of our work takes place in collaboration with other funders, both increasing the resources available as well as the expertise that can be applied to the programmes.

The focus of our Arts programme since 2010 has been work with older people in the UK and trustees have agreed to continue this until 2020. The Foundation has funding partnerships with all four national Arts Councils. The largest of these began in 2016 with a new fund led by the Arts Council England of £2.5 million to which we added £500k and which continued into 2017. The fund called Celebrating Age attracted an enormous level of interest from partnerships between arts organisations and older people's organisations. We also continued the second phase of our partnership with the Arts Council Northern Ireland, based on a very positive evaluation of the first phase. Our partnership with the Arts Council Wales also entered a second phase of support for artists in care homes in a scheme called cARTrefu. The year continued to see an ever growing awareness of the value of arts and older people work in part promoted by reports, resources and conferences funded by the Foundation. We expect this to be re-enforced by a £100k grant to the Southbank Centre to hold its first creative ageing festival in 2018.

The International Development programme entered its third year focussing on Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Intersex rights in sub-Saharan Africa. This was chosen as a neglected field which has a broader effect on development, particularly for women. In this respect it is part of the Leave No One Behind agenda of the UN Sustainable Development Goals. Grants were agreed to regional organisations based in Kenya and South Africa both to capacity build these grant-makers themselves and to give onward grants to Lesbian, Bisexual and Trans civil society. These are made with the involvement of activists themselves and is part of our approach to transfer resources and power to African civil society where possible. This work demands great bravery and resilience on the part of our partners. We are concerned to increase funding for this work from as wide a range of donors as possible in the UK and made several grants to assist this and welcomed a new dedicated stream of funding from the Department for International Development.

The Strengthening the Voluntary Sector programme adopted as a theme in 2015 the better use of the law and human rights based approaches in the UK. It offers an important additional tool for voluntary organisations to tackle disadvantage and discrimination. A second competition for grants again attracted tremendous interest and we awarded 19 grants to organisation working across a broad range of issues. This funding was made in partnership with the Legal Education Foundation and we were pleased to welcome the Esme Fairbairn Foundation this year as a further funding partner. Our portfolio of grantees has now risen to 37. Given that these were awarded from a pool of 433 applications, the need for this funding has been well demonstrated. In order to deepen our understanding of good practice in this emergent area, and to support peer learning among our grantees, we appointed as a 'learning partner' New Philanthropy Capital and Lisa Van Hala and Jacqui Kinghan of University College London.

The Foundation has over many years championed the importance of the independence of the voluntary sector. Building on the work of the Panel on the Independence of the Voluntary Sector, which was established by the Foundation and completed its work in 2015, it was our view that there was a need for a broad, creative and forward looking review of the state and role of civil society in England. Seven other independent funders shared this belief and came together to design and fund the Independent Inquiry into the Future of Civil Society. The building blocks for the Inquiry were put into place with the appointment of Julia Unwin CBE, as its chair, a diverse panel to support her along with a secretariat, led by Forum for the Future. The latter was appointed after an open tender which attracted many high quality applications. The Inquiry began its considerations using open and inclusive approaches and will issue its interim report in 2018.

Full details of the Foundation's programmes and of the grants agreed during 2017 are published on the Foundation's website (www.baringfoundation.org.uk) and are provided in the Report on Activities which has been published separately and reports on what the charity has achieved and the outcomes of its work. During the year appointment of a new post of Communications and Research Officer allowed us to refresh the look of these and our website.

Achievements and performance in the delivery of public benefit

The trustees have referred to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning its future activities. In particular, the trustees consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives that have been set.

The Foundation has a broad social objective and employs a range of monitoring and evaluation techniques in an attempt to assess its impact. These range from a light touch self-assessment for a small grant to an independent expert assessment for large grants or programmes of grants. The results of all evaluations are reported to the trustees.

The trustees are satisfied from this information that the work funded by the Foundation remains highly in demand and serves important needs in strengthening voluntary organisations which support people experiencing discrimination and disadvantage.

In addition to the activities reported above, the Foundation seeks to be an engaged grant maker by finding ways it can add value to the work of the organisations which it funds. The lessons derived through grant making are regarded as a major outcome in their own right. The Foundation frequently commissions or writes publications on areas relating to its grant programmes.

Financial review

Since 2001 the trustees have followed a total return strategy both for the management of the Foundation's investment fund and for determining the amount available each year to fund the grants programmes and meet expenses. This amount includes both income arising on the portfolio and an element of long term capital growth. The objective is to sustain the real level of grant distributions and to maintain the long term real value of the investment fund and to this end the level of distribution from the portfolio is calculated annually as a percentage of the rolling average value of the investment fund over the preceding 12 quarters, currently equal to 3.5% per annum plus any percentage change in the retail price index.

The Foundation's portfolio generated a total return of 17.1% over the calendar year representing significant outperformance compared to the long-term objective for the year of 7.6%. This performance was driven by strong returns from traditional asset classes where the sharp fall in sterling over the year boosted returns. Against a backdrop of unpredictable political events and major currency swings it was a very positive outcome.

Following changes implemented during 2016, the Foundation made a number of alterations to the asset allocation and management of its portfolio. Baillie Gifford currently manage around 88% of the funds including both equity and fixed interest securities and the Charities Property Fund around 10% with the balance representing private equity. The broad asset mix is expected to at least meet our benchmark return on average over the long term with modest volatility but with a higher income yield than under the previous structure.

Net assets at the year-end were £90.23 million (2016 79.9 million).

Investment Policy

In February 2013 trustees adopted the following statements on responsible investment:

"Our investments are made with the goal of providing long term stability of returns and liquidity to enable the continuity of the Foundation's grant giving in real terms."

"We engage with our asset managers to promote responsible investment and to encourage business to be ethical, socially responsible and to protect the environment. We aim to avoid investments which would support activities inconsistent with the purpose of the Foundation. We will seek to make some specific investments where there is a clear social impact aligned with the goals of the Foundation." In 2016 trustees undertook a detailed review of their investment approach taking expert advice. This resulted in a decision to change the strategic asset allocation of the endowment, also entailing changes in investment managers to be undertaken in 2016.

Reserves Policy

The Foundation's reserves effectively correspond to its investment portfolio which is managed on a total return basis with the intention of providing an annual income that will enable the Foundation to at least maintain in perpetuity the real value of the annual grants it makes. To that end the aim is to achieve a minimum average annual return on investments of 3.5% plus RPI net of management fees. In addition to holding the major part of its investments in readily marketable quoted securities the Foundation aims to keep cash balances sufficient to meet short-term grant commitments and ongoing expenses. The Trustees consider that the current level of unrestricted funds of £90.1 million meets this reserves policy.

Social investments

In addition to its Responsible Investment Statement and membership of the Charities Responsible Investment Network, in 2012 the Foundation invested £304,000 in Equity for Africa, aligned to our commitment to international development. At 31 December these investments were valued at: £46,054. Each year capital is returned to the charity and the Trustees then consider reinvestment of these funds.

THE BARING FOUNDATION

Plans

The trustees review the objectives and activities of the charity each year and agree a plan for the forthcoming year each September. The current themes for the three grants programmes will be maintained throughout 2018 as will our support from the Independent Inquiry into the Future of Civil Society. Trustees and staff will undertake a broad strategic review in 2018 to prepare a long term strategy to mark the Foundation's fiftieth anniversary in 2019.

Risk assessment

During the course of the year, the trustees considered the major risks to which the Foundation is exposed and the systems which it has to mitigate them. It was concluded that the Foundation has policies, procedures and systems in place to address the identified risks.

The following areas of risk are considered most important:

- Failure to achieve programme goals;
- Failure to earn adequate returns from our investment portfolio;
- Fraud by grant recipients.

Remuneration policy

The Foundation's policy is to provide remuneration that will attract and retain able and suitably qualified and experienced individuals who will effectively deliver the Foundations objects and supplemented where appropriate by independent experts on a consultancy basis. As far as is practicable, salaries are set by reference to the median pay for comparable positions within the charitable sector. The pay of each member of staff is reviewed annually by a committee of senior Trustees having regard to the financial resources and commitments of the Foundation, the impact of inflation on the real value of pay, and any recommendations of the Director. We have as a Board taken note of NCVO's recommendations in their "Report of the Inquiry into Charity Senior Executive Pay and guidance for trustees in setting remuneration". Our commitment to transparency is shown in disclosing the remuneration of senior staff in full in this report.

Fundraising policy

The foundations income is from its investment portfolio and no fundraising activity is carried out by the charity.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also directors of The Baring Foundation for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Foundation and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the Foundation for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Foundation will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Foundation and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Foundation and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

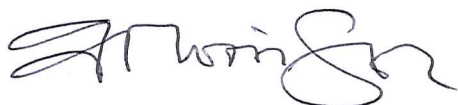

As far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the Foundation's auditors are unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all necessary steps to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the Foundation's website. Legislation in the United Kingdom governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

Members of the charity guarantee to contribute an amount not exceeding £1 to the assets of the charity in the event of winding up. The total number of such guarantees at 31 December was 15 (2016 - 13). The trustees are the members of the charity. This entitles them only to voting rights. The trustees have no beneficial interest in the charity.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE BARING FOUNDATION

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The Baring Foundation for the year ended 31 December 2017 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet, Statement of Cash Flows and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 December 2017 and of the charitable company's net movement in funds, including the income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Responsibilities of trustees for the financial statements

As explained more fully in the trustees' responsibilities statement set out on page 6 and 7, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at: www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our auditor's report.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

- the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- the trustees have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the charitable company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE BARING FOUNDATION

Other information

The trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Trustees Report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the Trustees Report (which incorporates the Directors' Report) for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the Trustees Report (which incorporates the Directors' Report) has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the Trustees Report (which incorporates the Directors' Report).

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept by the charitable company; or
- the charitable company financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of Trustees' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit
- the Trustees were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies' regime and take advantage of the small companies' exemptions in preparing the Trustees' report and from the requirement to prepare a strategic report.

Use of this report

This report is made solely to the charitable company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an Auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Basis of accounting

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2016) - (Charities SORP FRS 102), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006.

The charity meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note.

b) Donations and donated services

Income from donations is included in full in the statement of financial activities when receivable. Donated services and facilities are recognised as an incoming resource where the benefit to the Foundation is quantifiable and measurable, and are valued at the estimated cost the Foundation would pay for an equivalent service or facility in the open market. Donated premises, facilities and financial accounting services are received from ING Bank N.V. London Branch.

c) Investment income

Income from investments is included in the financial statements when it becomes receivable.

d) Grants payable

The full costs of grants are included in the statement of financial activities in the year in which they are approved. If grants that are approved during the year are payable by instalments or have not been paid, in part or in full, by the end of the year, any unpaid amounts are included as creditors in the balance sheet if the conditions attached to the grant are accepted by the beneficiary before the accounts are signed.

This policy reflects the Foundation's experience that it is highly probable that any further instalments will be paid as it is unlikely that circumstances will arise in which conditions attached to such grants are not met. The trustees consider that the Foundation has a constructive obligation in respect of such unpaid grants and therefore believe it prudent to treat these commitments as liabilities.

e) Other expenditure

Support and governance costs consist of those office and administration costs which are not directly attributed to a grant programme. The majority of these are the estimated costs of the premises, facilities and accounting services donated by ING Bank N.V. London Branch. (See note 1b)

Total support costs are allocated to the main grant programmes based on the estimated percentage of time spent by the staff on each activity. In 2017, on this basis, the support costs were apportioned as follows:

Investment management	6%
Strengthening the Voluntary Sector	28%
Arts programme	21%
International programme	16%
Special initiatives	1%
Other work	28%

f) Restricted funds

Restricted funds are to be used for specific purposes as laid down by the donor. Expenditure which meets these criteria is charged to the fund together with a fair allocation of management and support costs.

g) Unrestricted funds

Unrestricted funds are donations and other incoming resources receivable or generated for the objects of the charity.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

h) Going concern

The trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties regarding the charity's ability to continue as a going concern.

i) Critical accounting judgements and estimates

In preparing these accounts, management has made judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of the charity's accounting policies and the reported assets, liabilities, income and expenditure and the disclosures made in the accounts. Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

j) Debtors

Short-term debtors are measured at transaction price, less any impairment. Loans receivable are measured initially at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are measured subsequently at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment.

k) Creditors

Creditors and provisions are recognised where the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably.

l) Financial instruments

The charity only has financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments, including trade and other debtors and creditors are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value.

m) Redundancy and termination costs

The charity recognises employee redundancy and termination costs in full on the date the redundancy or termination is confirmed.

n) Fixed asset investments

Fixed asset investments are continuously revalued at bid price value and the value at the balance sheet date is the bid price value, as determined by the investment managers. The net gains or losses for the period are taken to the statement of financial activities.

o) Social investments

Social investments are recognised separately on the balance sheet at the amount invested (cost) less any impairment losses. Impairment losses are charged to charitable activities within the expenditure note. Any gains on disposals of programme related investments are set off against any previous impairment losses or shown as a gain on disposal recorded as "Other income".

p) Foreign currencies

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies have been translated into sterling at the relevant rates of exchange ruling at the balance sheet date, or where appropriate, the rates of exchange fixed under the terms of the relevant transaction.

q) Cash flow statement

The statement of cash flows is prepared in accordance with the indirect method, classifying cash flows as cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities.

r) Pension costs

Staff from the Baring Foundation receive a pension from the ING UK Pension Fund. For historic reasons one of the staff is an admitted member of a defined benefit scheme. The liability of the scheme is with ING Bank N.V. and not the Baring Foundation.

The pension cost represents contributions payable under the scheme by the Foundation to the fund. The Foundation has no liability under the scheme other than for the payment of those contributions.

15. MOVEMENT IN FUNDS – 2017 (continued)

Independent Inquiry into the Future of Civil Society

This is a joint programme set up in 2017 with seven other funders:

Lloyds Bank Foundation
Lankelly Chase Foundation
Calouste Gubenkian Foundation
Barrow Cadbury Trust
City Bridge Trust
Esmee Fairbairn Foundation
Paul Hamlyn Foundation

The seven funders will contribute a total of £360,000 over two years towards funding the Inquiry into the Future of Civil Society. The Baring Foundation agreed an anchor pledge of £200,000 of which £76,000 has been granted in 2017 from General Funds. Forum for the Future have been appointed to lead the secretariat for the Inquiry chaired by Julia Unwin.

Honoraria has been applied to the role of chair of the enquiry.

Arts and Older People Programme

In 2014 Arts Council England contributed £20,000 to a joint project with the Baring Foundation for a national evaluation of the Arts and Older People in Care programme.
